DEATH OF I. L. COBB

The funeral of Ira L. Cobb was held from his late home on Derby street, Thursday. Rev. Robert Lawton, pastor of the Congregational church, conducted the services and spoke in words of tenderest sympathy and comfort, of deepest hope and Christian promise. There was a profusion of beautiful floral offerings, which bore mute testimony to the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Interment was in the family lot at Morgan, from whence he came twenty years ago.

Mr. Cobb died at his home Tuesday. His death was a great shock to his family and friends, coming so suddenly. Although not ill, his health had been failing ever since he suffered from sunstroke four years ago.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife and one son, Luther, of this village.

TWO DROWNED AT NEWPORT

Frank Decker, an express messenger for the Western express company, and Joseph Lemeaux, a Canadian Pacific brakeman, met death last Friday afternoon by accidental drowning. The two men were out for a skate on Lake Memphremagog at Newport and were returning, when at a point about 300 feet from shore and opposite the government wharf light, they struck thin ice and both went in. The accident was witnessed by several and before aid could reach them the men went down.

E. C. Cass, an engineer, cut the bell rope in the engine cab and went to their assistance, but the rope proved a little too short and Lemeaux, who was reaching for the rope, went down for the last time. Decker rose to the surface only once and probably struck the ice in coming up the second time, as his body was found soon, 30 feet from where the men went in. Lemeaux's body was the first to be recovered and all efforts to revive him failed. Decker leaves a wife and had been married only six months. Lemeaux leaves a wife and five children.

Two paydays in one week is quite an unusual occurrence, but it took place at this terminal this week. The monthly pay was given Tuesday and the following day the first pay under the new weekly payment took place. There seems to be a divided opinion regarding the weekly payments, many liking it, while many others prefer the old once a month pay day.
